

J.L. Barron

M. Antin

S. Berenson

F. Goldstein

L. Hecht

R. F. Norwood

F. Stern

Who was the first mother elected to the Boston school committee?

Who was one of the first American nutritionists to link proper diet with good health?

Learn answers to these questions and more!

"Remarkable Jewish Women of Boston's West End" Walking Tour

[With librarians/tour guides: Linda Stern & Helaine Davis of "Jewish Women in Boston History"]

Sunday, September 25, 2011

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Beginning at the Vilna Shul, ending at the West End Museum

Vilna Shul	West End Museum
18 Phillips Street	150 Staniford Street
Boston, MA 02114

The walking tour will also include a brief talk at the Vilna Shul— given by Exec. Director, Steven Greenberg; and at the West End Museum— given by Exec. Director, Duane Lucia. Also, featured at the West End Museum, a talk by Evelyn Berde, artist of the mixed media exhibition: "Leaving the River"

Suggested donation: $10 per person

*RSVP by Tuesday, Sept 20th: helainedavis@gmail.com, <http://www.vilnashul.org>
Co-sponsored by Jewish Women in Boston History and Boston Women's Heritage Trail*

Note: Charles/MGH is the closest T stop to Vilna Shul, North Station, Haymarket Station, Bowdoin Station are the closest T stops to The West End Museum